JUDGMENT

Petitioner is the defacto complainant in Crime No.112/2001 of Chittarikkal Police Station, registered in respect of an incident which took place on 31.08.01. Investigation is complete. Final report has already been filed. Offences punishable, inter alia, under Sec.307 read with 149 IPC are alleged against the accused persons. The committal court has already committed the case as S.C.No.63/2004. At long last case appears to crept its way up now and trial has already started. At this belated hour the petitioner has come to this Court raising a grievance that there has been no proper investigation.

2. I find it unnecessary to go into the various details. I find absolutely no reason, at this stage, to invoke extraordinary constitutional jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and issue any directions in the matter.

3. This petition is accordingly dismissed. Needless to say, if the petitioner is, under law, entitled to claim any releif, that can be raised before the trial court. He shall approach the learned Sessions Judge and make his request.

(R.BASANT, JUDGE)
